

Science Vision and Principles

Vision

A practical approach to learning, which removes barriers to learning

An adaptive scientific curriculum, which challenges all, regardless of additional needs. Pupils are engaged, excited and immersed in learning which helps them to know more and remember more.

Foster curiosity, to provide opportunities to over learn key knowledge and articulate their ideas using scientific vocabulary.

Relevant real world learning.

Make connections to understand that science is all around us.

Inspire the next generation of scientists.